

Center City Weekend

South End Gallery Crawl

Friday, May 5, 2017

5:00 pm - 9:00 pm

The South End Gallery Crawl is a signature neighborhood event that happens on the first Friday evening of every month, from approximately 5-9 PM.

Fine Art Galleries in South End:

Charlotte Art League

Ciel Gallery

Coffey & Thompson Gallery

Dilworth Artisan Station

Elder Gallery

Hidell Brooks Gallery

Lark & Key Gallery

Vane Gallery

Front Porch Sundays

Sunday, May 7

12:00-5:00 p.m.

Shook Kelley Building, Historic South End; 2151 Hawkins Street, Charlotte

Front Porch Sundays, South End's monthly block party returns this Sunday with shopping, eating drinking live music and adoptable dogs from the Greater Charlotte SPCA! Visitors can spend the whole afternoon shopping at the nearly 50 independent businesses from Charlotte and the surrounding area, drinking cold beer from Sycamore Brewing, listening to the sweet tunes of Dave Crabtree and Nate Randall, doing some yoga with NC Yoga Bar, and grabbing a bite from one of the three food trucks that will be there (Magnolia Poboy's, Hiya Food truck and Now Toasted). There will also be coffee from Crane Coffee Co., ice cream from Golden Cow Creamery and popsicles from King of Pops Charlotte. Walk, bike, run on the Rail Trail, take the Blue Line, or carpool with friends.

Savory Saturdays

Saturday, May 13

8-11 a.m.

1545 West Trade Street (JCSU Arts Factory parking lot)

Savory Saturday is Charlotte's only breakfast food truck event.

Food Trucks this month: Cafe Ganache, Breakfast Food Truck, Climb's Roast Coffee...

Live Jazz by Michael Porter 9-11 a.m.

Bring the whole family to Charlotte's only breakfast food truck rally in the Historic West End.

Buy breakfast from one of the three great food trucks and bring a chair to eat at the Collard

Green museum lawn next to the Mosaic Village building. Make some new friends and enjoy jazz performed live by Michael Porter from 9-11 a.m.